MECHANICS' NATIONAL BANK—NEW YORK, FRB. Meany 24, 1876.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of this Sank, sid this day, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—Whereas, the Master of Line, in his all-wise providence has gathered into dis garner—like unto a sheaf of grain rully ripe—the belowed and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—Whereas, the Master of Line, in his all-wise providence has gathered into dis garner—like unto a sheaf of grain rully ripe—the belowed and renerable form of our late associate, Snepherd Knapp; therefore,
Resolved, That this event be duly recorded upon the minutes of our Board.

Mr. Knapp early in life came to this city, full of hepe and energy; his flielity, sagacity and upright, honorable career soon gained him a high measure of success as a merchant.

In the year 1838, at a period of great commercial depression and despondency, he was called to the Freadency of this Bank, and remained at the head of its administration for thirty-six years thereatier.

Wise, conservative and particule in his views as a financier. In counsals always thereatier.

Wise, conservative and particule in his views as a financier. In counsals always theread to the observation as held.

He bore his success and many honors modestly, and in the many public and private trusts committed to his care he was faithful to the end.

In his social relations he leaves the memory of a genial, courteous, charitable Christian ignatisman, a benevolent, sincere and affectionate friend.

In the community he bequeaths the example of an active, useful, malbenished Curistian life.

Resolved, That a copy of these minutes be sent to the family of our departed associates as an expression of our sympathy with them in their bereavement.

Resolved, the the members of this Board will, as a body, attend the funeral obsequies of our deceased trieff.

MOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.—NOTICE IS HEREBY given that George McNab, of Jersey City, in the county of Hudson and State of New Jersey, has this day made an assignment to the subscriber or his estate, for the equal benefit of his creditors, and that the said creditors must exhibit their respective claims, under cath or affirmation, within the term of three months to the subscriber. Dated February 2, A. D. 1873. GEORGE P. HOWELL, Assignee, office on Newark avenue, opposite the Court House, Jersey City, N. J.
